BACHELORS: WANT TO SCORE A HOME RUN?

The results are in: 9 out of 10 women look at a man's shoes before deciding if she'll date him.

Are you girlfriend ready but not girlfriend worthy? My Girlfriend is the girlfriend behind every bachelor who hopes to ask a woman out, bring her home and have her spend the night rather than send her running. My Girlfriend targets the single, straight male who desperately needs the help of a woman to bring him up to speed in terms of fashion, grooming, design, culture, food and wine. Whether you want the girl, the job or the look, My Girlfriend will get you noticed from the inside out.

Surely some fresh flowers and a bottle of wine would be a nice gesture; but what kind of music should you have playing in the background? What type of appetizers should you serve and from what store will you buy them? What kind of soap should you have in the bathroom? How about clean towels and bed sheets? What about the next morning, after your sleep over? Coffee, breakfast, a sparkling clean shower with all the right products and smells... sounds good doesn't it? My Girlfriend will advise you on the behind-the-scene details that truly matter.

My Girlfriend's mission is clear - to reinvent men, one bachelor at a time. If you are a single, straight male ready to dive into the dating scene and get results, or need someone you can trust to take care of you and all your personal needs, then My Girlfriend wants your number....
